INTELLIGENCE REPORT.
Military

In accordance with a confidential order of the General Military Headquarters at Hanking received by the Director of the Kiangnan Arsenal instructing that all munitions manufactured and stored at the Arsenal removed elsewhere, 14 carloads of mountain guns, stokes guns, machine guns, and rifles, and ammunition were despatched from the Shanghai South to Hangchow at 7.55 p.m. January 26. Twenty six cars are now being held in readiness at the South Station to transport more munitions out of the Arsenal. It is thought that this order has been issued owing to resentment shown by naval leaders to Feng Yushiang's attempt to bring the Admiralty under his control.

126 infantry, 6th Company, 2nd Battalion, 15th Regiment, 8th Brigade, 3rd Division, left Fengking for Sungkiang at 3 p.m. January 26.

INTELLIGENCE REPORT.

Labour

The strike situation in the Sun Sun Co., No. 145 Nanking Road, remains unchanged. Some 30 members of the Strike Committee held a meeting between 2 p.m. and 3.30 p.m. January 26 1929, in the offices of their union at No. 7 Kung Yih Li, off North Thibet Road, U.O.L., and passed the following resolutions:

1. That the local Kuomintang Headquarters be requested to endeavour to secure the release of Chao Soong Ling (曹松林); who was arrested by the Municipal Police outside the Sun Sun Co. Building on the forenoon of January 26 for intimidation.
2. That the local Kuomintang Headquarters be requested to apply to have a warrant issued for the arrest of the two running dogs named Pan Chi Ming (潘志明), and Sun Sao Pei (孫少白) who caused the Police to arrest Chao.
3. That a general meeting of strikers be held at 9 a.m. January 28 at a place to be fixed later.

A strike picket named Chao Sung Ling was arrested at 11.30 a.m. January 26, on Hweichow Road for attempting to force a worker of the Sun Sun Company to go to Chapei and join the Labour Union. He will be brought before the Provisional Court on January 28.

About 1,000 female workers of the Pootung Factory of the British Cigarette Company struck work at 7 a.m. January 26, as a protest against the dismissal of a shroff, but resumed at 3 p.m. the same day. On leaving the premises at 6 p.m. however a number of them scattered cigarettes about to show their resentment.
